

Public Meeting #1: April 22, 2014

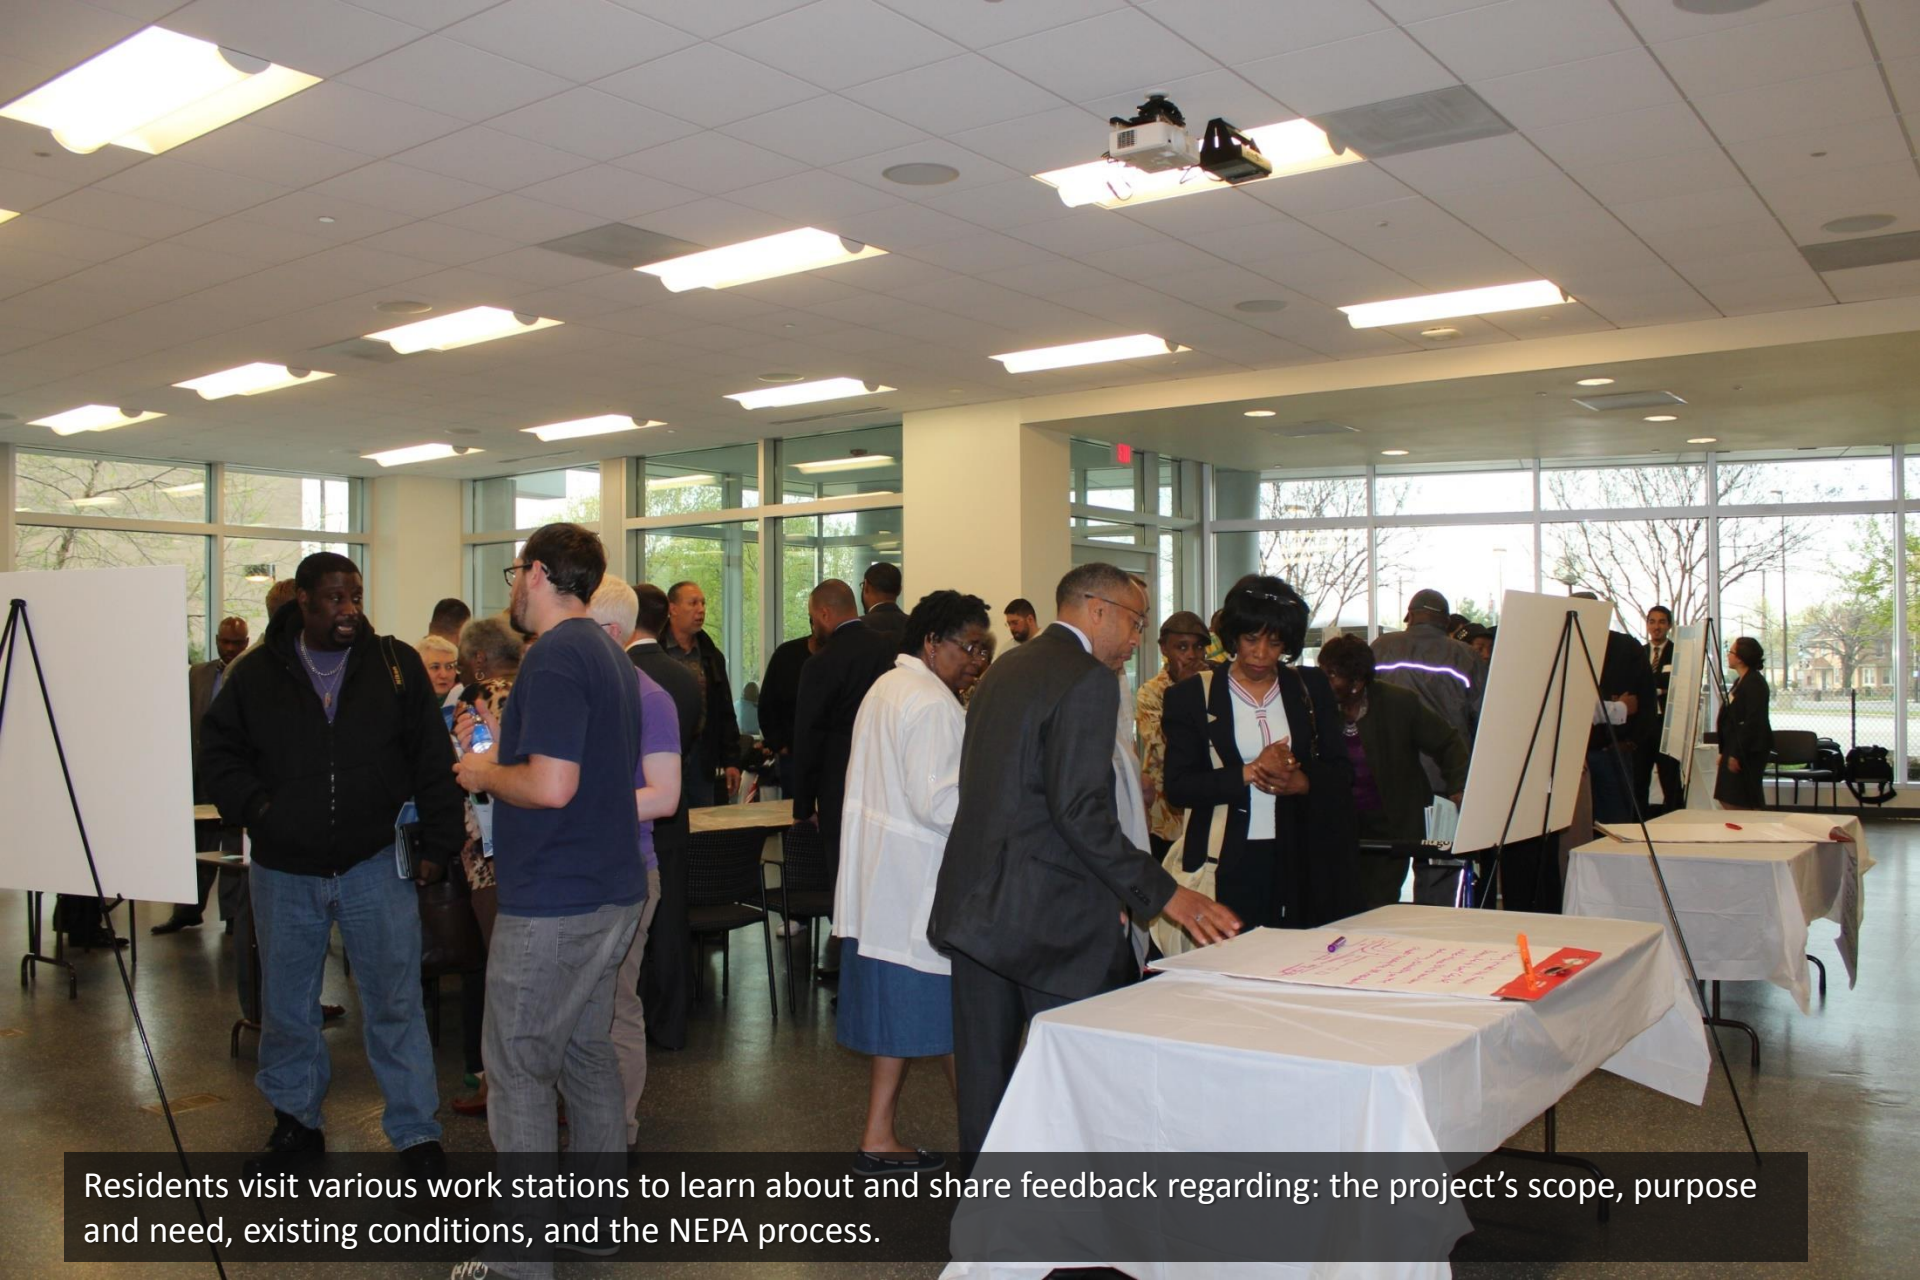

Residents and the project team discuss existing conditions using a roll plot map of the corridor.

Committee of 100 board members and project team members discuss project needs.

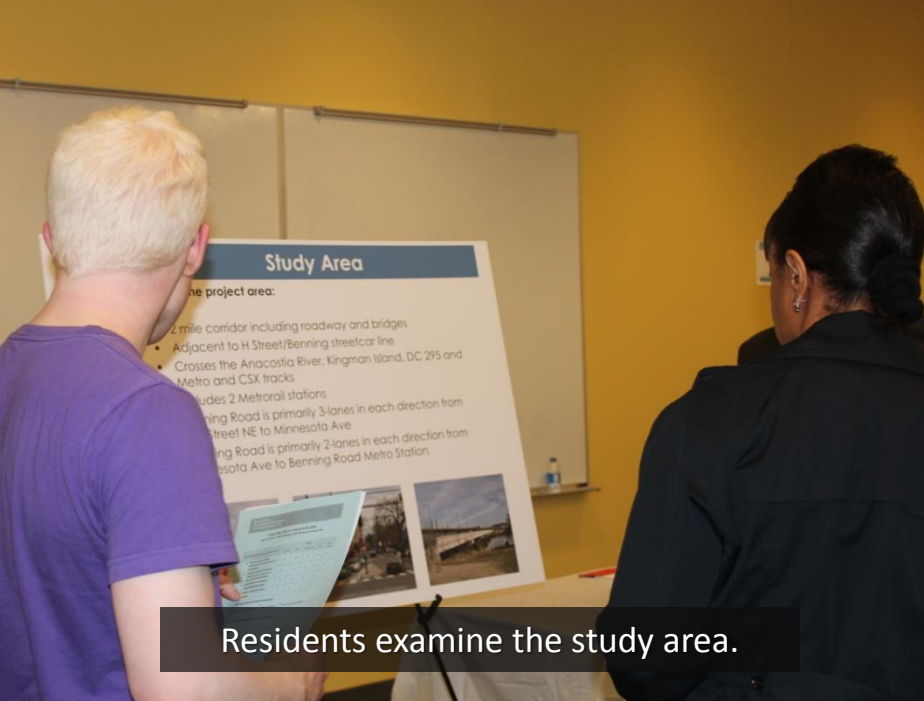

Resident learns the purpose of the meeting.

Residents visit various work stations to learn about and share feedback regarding: the project's scope, purpose and need, existing conditions, and the NEPA process.

Central Northeast Civic Association member shares concerns about existing conditions and potential impacts to residents.

Residents examine the study area.

Resident documents her feedback.

Project needs discussion between resident and DDOT project team member.

DDOT engineer addresses residents' questions and comments.