

December 14, 2012

To Whom It May Concern:

I am in strong favor of promoting food trucks In the DC area. As a downtown worker, it is a unique and tasty option that fosters new business, camaraderie among fellow DC residents and employees, and offers a reprieve and alternative from cumbersome sit-down restaurants and boring quick service food chains. Let the trucks run free!

Sincerely,

Jillian Delos Reyes