

December 21, 2012

I support the DCRA's new proposed regulation that will limit the number of food trucks (3) in any block and also support the proposal that will allow every truck a specific location (so the health inspector can go and inspect the truck at any time if there is any complain about the food or any other health issue).

Kazi Mohiuddin